All the News That's Print to Fit

Larchmont Race Week

Two Huguenot YC Feva sailors were apprehended at Larchmont Jr Race Week trying to run off with a couple of beer steins. Fortunately, a crowd of unruly sailors were able to corner them at the podium.

Two New Coach Boats for the 2nd Session

In an effort to keep up with coaching demands, HYC is pleased to announce a plan to phase in two new instructor boats for the second and third weeks of the program.

Paddle Boarding Returns to Huguenot

Lillian Gish, American actress of the silver screen and stage, as well as a director and writer, was often called the First Lady of American Paddle Boarding, and is credited with pioneering its fundamental and performing techniques.

The Huguenot Yacht Club Jr Sailing Program is proud to continue this exciting and future Olympic sport.

The thing that has been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. - Ecclesiastes 1:9

Lots of Wind and Rain

This week the Junior Sailors were blessed with wind and lots of rain.

The sailors were advised not to tell their parents how much fun they were having.
